THOMAS A. EDISON
HIGH SCHOOL

CREATIVITY:
SELF — EXPRESSION
FROM WITHIN

I stand just so.
Your camera winks me into permanence
acne scars
    tired eyes
wrinkles on my forehead
more naked than I have ever been

I used to be afraid to look completely real the sun was just my friend sometimes when brown from sea and sky made things all right—always afraid to be anything but young and envying beauty
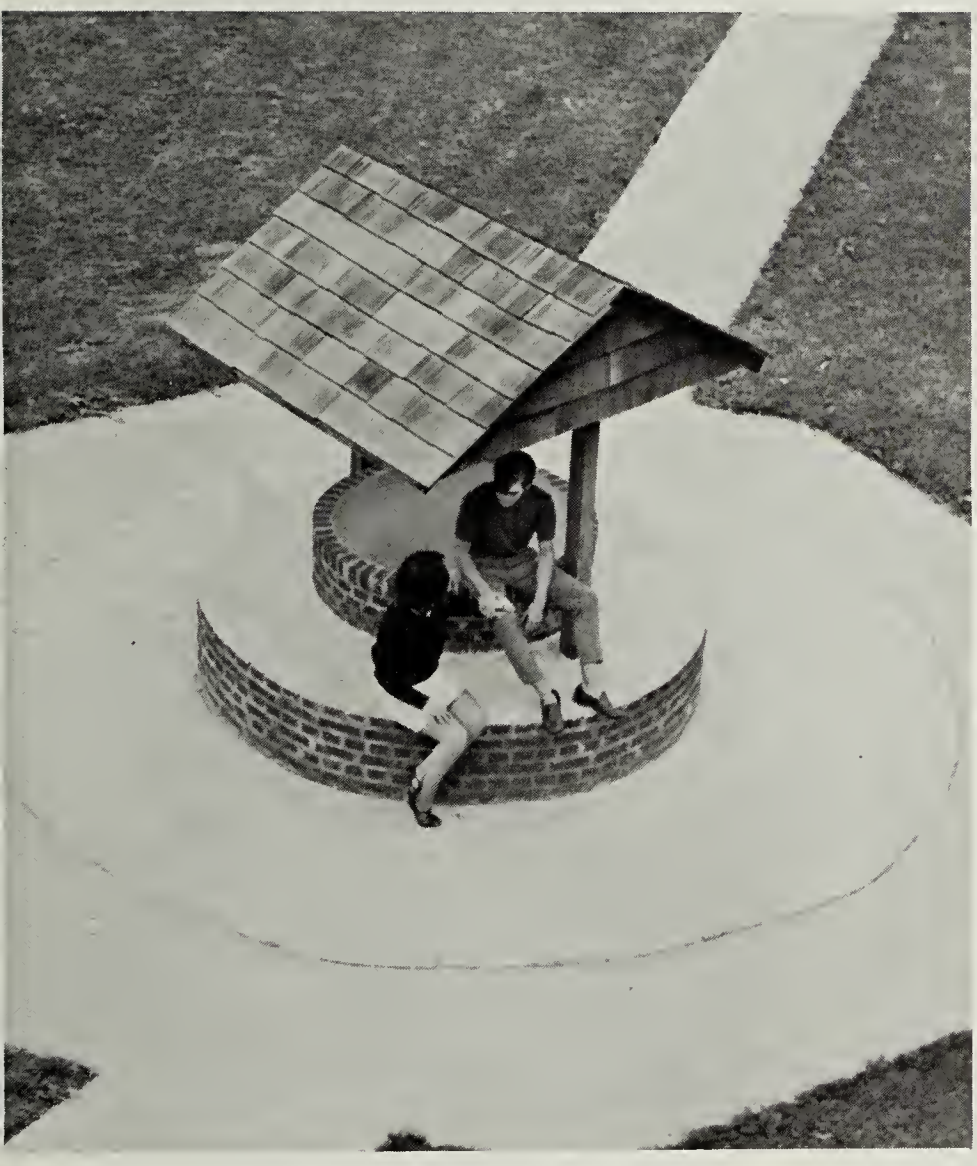
even on the face of strangers.



Is this what growing up means
the reality of lighting over public mirrors?
Or is my confidence in love so great that I worry not to let you see me at my worst?

thespians

Students interested in the advancement and improvement of the dramatic arts made their outlet the Thespian Society. To become eligible for membership, students earned a required number of points by participating in theatrical endeavors. Much entertainment was provided to the student body through the efforts of this group.

Sponsor, Mr. Dunlap.

The Marching, Reserve, and Symphonic Bands constituted the Music Department of Edison High School. They provided a means of outlet and instruction to musical students, much to the benefit of the school and student body. Separately, each group has left its contribution. The Marching Band performed during halftime at football games and pep rallies, and marched in parades and competitions. Members of the Reserve Band, in training for the Symphonic Band, played at the joint Christmas Concert. The Symphonic Band presented four annual concerts, accompanied the Drama Department in its musicals, and entered the State Band Festival and the Mid-Atlantic Band competitions.

gone with the wind

Homecoming Week, with its theme of Gone with the Wind, offered a chance for participation for every student in the school. If one did not decorate a hall, perform in the Follies, or build a float, he could wear his class's color on the appropriate day. The week was climaxed by a bonfire on Thursday, a football game on Friday—which the Eagles lost to the J.E.B. Stuart Raiders, and a dance on Saturday night during which Sue Carney was crowned Homecoming Queen.

The Senior Class took first place for its hall decoration, the German Honor Society won the Follies, and the Junior Class was victorious in the float competition.
